On Napoleon's Tracks

The entrance of the harbour in Boulogne-sur-Mer and the mouth of the river Slack with the village of Ambleteuse

In a hop, skip and a jump, you will be in the Harbour in Boulogne-sur-Mer, the first French fishing harbour, then along the Côte d'Opale. These landscapes offer exceptional scenic views with magnificent colours, immortalised by many painters.

You were lulled by the sound of the North sea while pedalling, but you are insatiable and you are now heading towards the inland. You will discover a wooded countryside, where you will have time to enjoy, while climbing, the region of Boulogne –sur-Mer

In the valley of Wimereux, in Pernes les Boulogne, you will be warmed and stimulated by a hot chocolate. After having crossed over the town of Samer, whose church can be distinguished by being built in houses, you will, ride through the valley of « La Course » In Recques sur Course, you will be restored your strenght whith a pie, a speciality from Le Portel, and a glass of wine, in order to reach the Citadel of Montreuil.

You will be charmed by the Citadel of Montreuil and its battlements. The show must go on. In Etaples, you will be delighted by the vastness of the Canche'sbay, Hardelot's castel named « the castle of the friendly understanding » fully renovated.

You will be warmly welcomed by the St Joseph club at your arrival, for a well deserved rest.
